30th November, 2009

Dear Secretary,

As you would appreciate the growing complexities in Public Financial Management, coupled with the increasing concern of the Government for timely and quality delivery, are posing serious challenges for requisite managerial skills and capacity development in the government. The issues concerning larger and cost effective resource mobilization and its effective utilization, Corporate Governance, Public Private Partnership, Infrastructure Financing, etc. require continuous and intense training of officers at various levels.

2. National Institute of Financial Management (NIFM), an Autonomous Institute under Ministry of Finance, Government of India is conducting a comprehensive programme on Public Financial Management – Post Graduate Diploma in Management [Financial Management] to meet the specialised professional requirements of middle/ senior level Government officers, Public Sector executives and the experienced executives from the Corporate Sector. The programme intends to build strong leadership and inculcate specific skill sets among the participants to prepare them face the challenges emanating from emerging economic and international business environment, which would immensely impact the existing and unfolding models of public private partnership, corporate governance and public financial management. The programme is quite unique in the sense that it provides a common platform for participation of executives from Government as well as the Corporate Sector. This opportunity is expected to provide a valuable premise for professional networking and appreciation of work practices, value system and organizational culture of each other.

3. This is a programme duly recognized by All India Council of Technical Education (AICTE), and has also been recognized equivalent to Masters Programme in Management by Association of Indian Universities (AIU). The programme also has an International Attachment of two weeks to provide exposure to the best international practices in the field of Public Financial Management and Good Governance.

4. In the past many state governments, including north eastern states and special category states have benefited from the program. It is quite heartening to know that Central Ministries and departments, Defence forces and Indian Coast Guards have also sponsored their officers for the program and made this program a regular feature in their training calendar.
