

Steps for submitting online applications with regard to import/export of hazardous waste under Hazardous and other Wastes(Management, Handling and Trans-boundary Movement) Rules, 2016:

- i. Log on to the website of integrated waste management system (IWMS) iwms.nic.in for registering yourself in the database;
- ii. Click on the icon of the industry to register as a new user and fill all the relevant details in the registration form. The applicant will be provided a username and password;
- iii. Login with the user name and password provided by the database and change your password and login again with the changed password;
- iv. Click under the Hazardous Waste tab on the import/export of Hazardous waste (Form 5) .
- v. The applicant has to enter details with respect to:
 - a) Details with regard to import/export of hazardous waste;
 - b) Annex all the relevant documents.
- vi. Submit the details and wait for the Ministry to process.
- vii. After logging into the system, using the user-id and password the applicant can track the status of their application using the user dashboard.

